HF Foods Group Opens State-of-the-Art Distribution Warehouse in Powder Springs, GA

December 18, 2025

Opens an advanced 190,000 square foot distribution center driven by increased market demand

POWDER SPRINGS, Ga., Dec. 18, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- HF Foods Group (Nasdaq: HFFG) ("HF Foods" or the "Company"), a leading distributor of international foodservice solutions to Asian restaurants and other businesses across the United States, celebrated the opening of its newest distribution center just outside of Atlanta, GA in the City of Powder Springs, GA at a ribbon cutting event at the new facility.

"We are excited to launch our newest distribution center for our Atlanta operations in Powder Springs," said Felix Lin, President and CEO of HF Foods. "This strategic expansion was driven by increased market demand that caused us to outgrow our previous Atlanta facility. Powder Springs provides an ideal location with its central positioning and direct access to major transportation corridors, enabling us to deliver enhanced service to our existing customer base while substantially increasing our capacity to serve thousands of additional restaurants across the Southeast region."

The new distribution center will continue to service over 1,000 customers from HF Foods' previous Atlanta location, and is now open to deliver to more businesses throughout Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee. HF Foods' customer base is predominantly Asian restaurants located in nearly every town in the United States. The Company's national fleet of over 400 trucks is equipped to deliver both the staples and specialty items restaurants need to answer the growing demand in their communities for authentic specialty foods.

Attendees of the event toured the facility, which demonstrates plenty of space for growth and state-of-the-art equipment that will enable enhanced operations throughout the Southeast. "This facility is utilizing technology and equipment that we plan to expand to operations across the country," added Lin. "The racking system, dynamic inventory storage methods, and new warehouse automation technologies are all expected to contribute meaningfully to sustainable growth of our business nationwide."

The Mayor of Powder Springs, Al Thurman, along with city council and economic development members of the City of Powder Springs were in attendance at the event. "The City of Powder Springs is delighted to welcome HF Foods to our community," said Mayor Thurman. "Families are moving to Powder Springs at a rapid pace, and we're thrilled to partner with established companies like HF Foods that bring quality employment opportunities to meet our area's growing workforce needs."

The distribution center is located at 4795 Innovative Highway, Powder Springs, GA 30127, and officially opened operations in December. The facility currently employs over 50 individuals, with plans to expand operations throughout 2026. For more information on HF Foods Group, visit www.hffoodsgroup.com.
